How YOU Are Called To BE Church
Soup & Bread 2022

FROM FATHER POGGEMEYER

Dear Parishioners, +JMJ

A couple weeks ago I sent an explanation memo to the Diocesan Finance Office and Diocesan Legal Counsel, in order to get permission to sign a design/architectural contract with Peterman & Associates out of Findlay. This is for the new storage/maintenance building we are planning. The following is the content of that letter to the Diocese, to keep you informed: With this memo I would like to set in motion the process towards asking the Bishop for permission to build a storage/maintenance building on the St. Wendelin Church property.

The Need:

With the sale of the high school property, we lost not only the maintenance manager's office, but also four storage buildings, which held items for basic parish life (such as a huge Easter tomb, large industrial carpets, etc.), but also for the annual parish festival, which was the biggest social event in Fostoria every year. We started a mini-fest this past August, joining the downtown Fostoria Historic Society Day; and the hope is that this mini-fest grow from downtown to include components on our own campus. Many parishioners and townspeople do not want to see the St. Wendelin Festival disappear completely. With that in mind, we kept the bare minimum of tables, chairs, stanchions, umbrella's, etc. for a future festival. The four storage buildings also held equipment, such as a plough and a forklift, etc. One of the storage buildings also served for cleaning of equipment such as the mowers.

Overall, we greatly reduced what was stored, but there remains storage needs beyond what we can handle presently. For temporary storage, we have filled two semi-trailers, loaned to us by a parishioner (see photo), as well as the rectory garage (see photos), as well as the Morton building out at the cemetery (see photos). Ever since putting the high school property up for sale, it was the plan eventually to build the needed storage/maintenance building on the church property.

The Resources Available:

However, we did not plan on building it this soon. Our minds changed when we received an $88,503 check from the Fostoria Economic Development Corporation in December -- half the profit from sale of the four out-buildings on the high school property, once the demolition costs of the high school were covered. In addition to that check, we received a bequest for $11,213; and we have two bequests that should be in hand in the very near future -- one for about $15,000, the other for $125,000. Those sources add up to $239,716. Based on some conversations I had way back when first imagining a new storage/maintenance building, I believe that amount will come very close to covering its construction. We of course plan on getting at least three quotes from contractors, at which point we will know better the cost.

No Conflict With the Bishop's Capital Campaign:

We would not have to do any formal fundraising; and therefore, we would not be in conflict with the Bishop's Capital Campaign. The finance council agreed that it makes sense, therefore, to build the new maintenance/storage building sooner, rather than later. In fact, it was suggested that the building could be completed by late summer; coinciding with our wave of the Bishop's Capital Campaign, which begins in August.

Zoning and Engineering/Architecture:

I already spoke with Fostoria's Zoning Commissioner to ask about procedure in Fostoria, and to determine that there are no zoning issues. He came out to look at the site (see aerial view of our property for proposed location), and it seems initially that there are no obstacles regarding location; and he recommended Peterman & Associates out of Findlay to do the engineering and architectural drawings for us. Peterman does a lot of work with the City of Fostoria. The process should be much smoother using them.

I met with Peterman & Associates. They provided a quote of about $15,000 for Professional Design Service. The building will be about 60' x 80'. Perhaps about a third of the building will be separately walled, with some heat and air conditioning for maintenance work and cleaning vehicles, equipment, huge entry-way carpets, etc. The maintenance manager's office will also be in that separate section. There will be a small bathroom. There will be a large loft to increase storage capacity. It should be a pretty simple structure.

So, there is the memo I sent to the Diocese to begin the process. I got permission to sign the contract with Peterman & Associates, and they have already sent out a site survey team. I plan to assemble a small committee to help especially with the external look of the building. It seems to me we ought to match it somehow to the church itself; but I am not sure how. Peterman & Associates will help us with some options; and I am sure the final building contractor will as well. Have a blessed week!

Father Poggemeyer

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION

SMALL GROUP SERVICE PROJECTS

During the month of February, families participating in Faith Formation were challenged to do a service project together with the other families in their small groups. They were so creative and truly were the hands and feet of Christ to so many people in our community! Below are just a few pictures of their outstanding work.

The Smith, Holman and Farabee families delivered items to the City Mission in Findlay.

The Jones, Wonderly, Koppus, Prater and Dibble families made valentine cards to deliver to area nursing homes and First Step domestic violence shelter.

The Badik, Haferd, Munoz and McCarty families served at the Fostoria Sharing Kitchen.

The Kleinfelter and Bell families dropped off donations and helped pack Easter eggs at Share & Care in Fremont.

The Juarez, Molotla, Salcido and Quiroz families surprised Shellie Gabel with a care package to thank her for all of the service she has given to our parish.

The Rodriguez, Painter, Gallina and Faber families packaged baked goods and created cards for homebound parishioners and friends and then delivered them to their homes.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

CATECHISM CORNER

On the threshold of the public life: the baptism; on the threshold of the Passover: the Transfiguration. Jesus' baptism proclaimed "the mystery of the first regeneration", namely, our Baptism; the Transfiguration "is the sacrament of the second regeneration": our own Resurrection. From now on we share in the Lord's Resurrection through the Spirit who acts in the sacraments of the Body of Christ. The Transfiguration gives us a foretaste of Christ's glorious coming, when he "will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body." But it also recalls that "it is through many persecutions that we must enter the kingdom of God": Peter did not yet understand this when he wanted to remain with Christ on the mountain. It has been reserved for you, Peter, but for after death. For now, Jesus says: "Go down to toil on earth, to serve on earth, to be scorned and crucified on earth. Life goes down to be killed; Bread goes down to suffer hunger; the Way goes down to be exhausted on his journey; the Spring goes down to suffer thirst; and you refuse to suffer?" (CCC 556)

GOOD NEWS

On March 6th, the First Sunday of Lent, our parish sent our RCIA candidate Thomas Seagro with our prayers to the Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion in Findlay. Tom was officially recognized by Bishop Thomas' delegate, Msgr. Tad Oxley, as a candidate for full reception into the Catholic Church and was called to participate fully in a period of deeper conversion during this Lenten season in preparation for reception of the Sacraments of Confirmation & Eucharist at Easter. Please continue to pray for him and for all of those preparing to receive the Sacraments in our parish!

DON'T MISS THIS EVENT!

Seventh through twelfth graders and parents with children of ALL ages are invited to attend a presentation by The Culture Project, a group of passionate, joyful young adult missionaries, concerning love, identity and sexual integrity on Sunday, March 27th at 9:00 AM. The presentation will begin for all in the Parish Hall, but teens will eventually disperse for their own separate session with the missionaries. Childcare will be available for children too young to participate in the teen track. Please contact Jessica Pehmoeller with questions!

MUSIC & LITURGY

Commemorations during Privileged Seasons

If you have attended or viewed a daily Mass since Lent began, you may have heard Fr. Poggemeyer explain a little about the commemoration of the saint of the day. What is a commemoration? Liturgically speaking, it is the inclusion of prayers of a lower ranking celebration in one of higher rank. Commemorations were commonplace throughout the year prior to Vatican II—up to three different celebrations could be joined together in one liturgy. Post-Vatican II, only one set of prayers (known as “orations”) for a saint or a season can be prayed at each liturgy throughout most of the year. However, there are times known as privileged seasons when saints can be commemorated. During these times, the readings and prayers of the day—both in Mass and the Liturgy of the Hours—are so integral to the context of the season that they cannot be changed. The privileged seasons are: the final week of Advent (December 17-24), the Octave of Christmas, and the entire season of Lent. Memorials of saints in these seasons are treated only as optional—meaning they can be omitted entirely—or as a commemoration within the weekday.

How are commemorations celebrated? At Mass, only the collect (opening prayer) of the saint is said. The remaining orations (Prayer over the Offerings and Prayer after Communion) as well as the Preface of the Eucharistic Prayer come from the respective weekday. The color of the season is used rather than the color of the saint. As noted above, the readings cannot be changed to match the saint. As an example, let us look at the Saints Perpetua and Felicity celebrated on March 7. In Lent, these saints could be celebrated or entirely omitted. If this memorial occurs outside of Lent, it is obligatory to celebrate. Here are the differences you would observe based on when this celebration occurs.

Ordinary Time

Color: Red
Orations: all for Perpetua and Felicity
Readings: from the respective weekday in Ordinary Time, or, suggested readings for Perpetua and Felicity from the Common of Martyrs
Preface: for Holy Martyrs

Lenten Commemoration

Color: Violet
Collect: for Perpetua and Felicity
Readings: from the current Lenten weekday
Other Orations: from the current Lenten weekday
Preface: Lent Preface I, II, III, or IV

You can see that while the saint is at least remembered in a commemoration, the emphasis is still the weekday of the privileged season. This helps us keep focused on what is most important during that time, whether it is awaiting for Christ's birth in Advent, celebrating his birth in the octave of Christmas, or walking the way of the cross with him in Lent.

Antiphons for This Sunday

Entrance: cf. Psalm 27:8-9

*Of you my heart has spoken: Seek his face.
 It is your face, O Lord, that I seek;
 hide not your face from me.*

Communion: Matthew 17:5

*This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased;
 listen to him.*

Our Parish Lenten Prayer

*Merciful and Loving Father,
 in this holy season of Lent,
 we ask that you enlighten our minds,
 inflame our hearts,
 and make us aware of your great love for us.
 Help us to turn away from sin,
 believe in the Gospel,
 and live the ways of your truth.
 Your Son, our Savior, has defeated death itself
 and made us your sons and daughters by our Baptism.*

*Increase in us the faith that you are truly here in the Eucharist and in every member of our Church.
 Thank you for the ways you have blessed our parish community.
 Help us to communicate to others the joy
 which discipleship brings,
 so that others may come to follow your Son.
 Heal those who are sick or hurting,
 comfort those who mourn,
 and bring back those members of our family who are lost.
 Relying on the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary,
 Saint Joseph, and Saint Wendelin,
 we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.*

The Mass of Charity and Love as well as Saint Michael Prayer can be found in the back of the hymnal.
